

ROLE4INITIATIVE

OBJECTIVES

Club members will master the rules of 5th Edition Dungeons & Dragons by creating and playing characters in an ongoing campaign. Together with experienced Dungeon Masters, our members will learn about and implement a variety of real-world skills such as teamwork, planning, strategic and tactical thinking, and problem-solving.

The purpose of the fair exhibit is to promote awareness of the game and the applicability of its core principles to the development of confident, mindful, insightful, and empathetic participation and leadership in modern society.

RULES FOR EXHIBITION

1. Only members enrolled in Role4Initiative may participate.
2. Members must have attended 70% of club meetings in the previous 12 months.
3. Members must complete their detailed character background as established by club leadership.

AWARDS

All participants will receive noncompetitive participant ribbons and a gaming dice set.
